This year's Catholic Day at the Capitol is scheduled for Wednesday, January 17, and will focus on the urgent need for reform in Mississippi's mental healthcare system. Please encourage your parishioners to register for the morning's events at the Cathedral of St. Peter. The press conference will take place at 1:45 pm on the south steps of the Capitol Building. If participants wish to meet with their legislator they need to make their own appointments. Please let David Buhle know if you can attend. Registrations close January 10.
